[News Anchor]:

"Strong feelings of independence were definitely felt in Scotland, but it wasn't enough to make this notion a reality. 54% of Scottish voters chose to remain part of the United Kingdom. Reportedly, most Scots emphasized with nationalism but the uncertainty in Scotland's economic future on its own weighed heavily on voting against independence."

[Cut to Laura McGill]:

"It was too big of a risk. I didn't feel some questions were answered sufficiently."

[News Anchor, voice over]:

"Laura McGill, who voted 'no,' pointed out the lack of initiative for a new Scottish currency. Furthermore, McGill questioned if an independent Scotland would be able to pay off their debt to Britain."
